2001: Ministry of Culture and Religious Affairs has initiated, within the Department for European Integration, Harmonization, Media, the Cultural Contact Point (CCP).

2005: the Cultural Contact Point has been included in a new created public institution the Consultancy Centre for European Cultural Programmes subordinated to the Ministry of Culture and Religious Affairs.

Main task: to prepare the Romanian cultural market for the access to European programmes and funds which allow the insertion of cultural components, others than the ones from the programme dedicated to culture.

The Consultancy Centre for European Cultural Programmes represents Romania in the Management Committee for “Culture 2000”.
